

Northern Sun Forsythia

Forsythia 'Northern Sun'

This deciduous shrub was developed by the University Of Minnesota. This variety is one of the best flowering In northern climates. The flower buds are hardy to -30 Degrees. The plant is full of yellow blossoms very Early in spring. The leaves are a medium green and Show little fall color.

Mature Size: 8-10' Tall by 7-9' Wide

Light Requirements: Full Sun, Light Shade

Soil Requirements: Quite Adaptable

Maintenance: Rejuvenation pruning recommended Every few years....prune out 1/4 to 1/3 of the largest Shoots at the ground

Use: This plant is best used in a sunny area where Other plants will provide interest after spring. It makes A great mass planting for a sunny area.

