

Sester's Dwarf Blue Spruce

Picea pungens 'Sester Dwarf'

This dwarf evergreen is a perfect option to add the evergreen blue color to your landscape without the size of the tree form. It's slow growth rate will allow it to fit in almost any yard. It's ten year size is only 5-6' tall. And like most spruces, it is deer resistant.

Mature Size: 6-8' Tall by 3-4' Wide

Light Requirements: Full Sun, Light Shade

Soil Requirements: Quite Adaptable

Maintenance: Very Little, requires no pruning to Maintain size and shape

Some plants that look great in combination with Sester's Dwarf

King's Gold False Cypress

Obsidian Coral Bells

Golden Barberry